

Elaine Yuen is the Senior Education & Conservation Officer of Green Power currently working on habitat conservation and community engagement projects concerning rivers and wetlands in Hong Kong. A freshwater ecologist by training, Elaine received a BSc and an MPhil in Ecology and Biodiversity from the University of Hong Kong. Through her work she hopes local citizens could appreciate and be empowered to protect our valuable freshwater treasures.