

Jang Suk Hwan is a Professor at the Department of Civil Engineering, Daejin University, where he had conducted research on flood analysis, urban hydrology and river restoration since 1998. He is the current Chairperson of the Korea River Restoration Network, and the past Chair of Asian River Restoration Network (2014-2017), dedicated to providing platform for multilateral knowledge exchange and cooperation for restoring healthy water cycle in river systems in Asia. He also holds several positions in relation to water management: Vice President of The Society of Korean Smart Water Grid (since 2014); Board Member of Korea Water Resources Management Committee (since 2018).