

Mr. Huang is chairman and founder of Shenzhen Spring Environmental Protection Volunteers Association(SENGO) with rich experience of public activities. In 2011, Mr Huang set up SENGO with a group of senior volunteers, in order to make environmental protection more effective and volunteers' service more valuable. Gathering volunteers' strength, SENGO mainly focus on Pearl River watershed protection, coastal wetland conservation, green communities and green finance. As one of the most influential organizations in Pearl River Delta, SENGO has attained great achievements in promoting all sectors of society to participate in water environment protection. SENGO's brand projects include Shenzhen Civil River Chief, Pearl River Joint Action, etc.
