

Dr. Frederick Lee holds a PhD degree in Urban Planning from MIT. Dr. Lee is the Co-Director of JC-WISE, a three-year, HK$14.7 million public education project on water sustainability, supported by the Hong Kong Jockey Club. He is also an Honorary Associate Professor in the Department of Geography. Dr. Lee now serves as the Chairman of the Board of The Green Earth; and a consultant to the Hong Kong SAR government on water policy issues. He was elected in 2016 to serve as a Director on the Executive Board of the International Water Resources Association. Dr. Lee has published in international journals, including The China Quarterly, Journal of Contemporary China, World Development, Environmental Politics, Third World Planning Review, International Development Planning Review, and the International Journal of River Basin Management.